

Take a bow!

The arts really matter to us in Ireland; they are a big part of people's lives, the country's single most popular pursuit. Our artists interpret our past, define who we are today, and imagine our future. We can all take pride in the enormous reputation our artists have earned around the world.

The arts play a vital role in our economy, and smart investment of taxpayers' money in the arts is repaid many times over. The dividends come in the form of a high value, creative economy driven by a flexible, educated, innovative work force, and in a cultural tourism industry worth €2.4 billion directly a year.

The Arts Council is the Irish Government agency for funding and developing the arts. Arts Council funding from the taxpayer, through the Department of Tourism, Culture and Sport, for 2010 is €69.15 million, that's less than €1 a week for every household.

So, at the end of your next great festival experience, don't forget the role you played and take a bow yourself!

Introduction

Made In Donegal – the theme of the 22nd Earagail Arts Festival celebrates the presentation of new work by Donegal artists and collaborations with invited international guests in a fantastic programme of music, theatre, visual artists, spoken word and outdoor events that embodies the unique culture and landscape of this captivating county. With an associated international programme of performers from around the globe, this year's festival will feature more family orientated, circus events than ever before with many free of charge, and a rich cluster of programmes around major outdoor shows in Ballybofey and Letterkenny, the Gaeltacht and Inishowen. In conjunction with our accommodation, leisure and heritage partners we want to ensure your experience of this year's festival is as enjoyable and immersive as possible so we've introduced a number of great ticket deals across a range of performances, so you can take in more of the festival and the county for less. As well as excellent accommodation packages, if you're staying with one of our featured hotels you'll be able to avail of a special ticket discount code when you book your room. In the year of the appointment of the first national cultural ambassador - we hope you, the audience, our supporters and our lifeblood will advocate the Earagail Arts Festival in your own definable way, for it is your continued support that is key to the future of this iconic summer festival. Born, bred and Made In Donegal.

Déanta i nDún na nGall – is ceiliúradh é téama 22ú Féile Ealaíne an Earagail ar shaothar úr ó ealaíontóirí de chuid an chontae agus ar chomhoibriú le haíonna idirnáisiúnta. Is é an toradh atá air seo ná clár iontach de cheol, de dhrámaíocht, d'amharcealaíona, den fhocal labhartha agus d'imeachtaí faoin aer ar léargas é ar chultúr agus ar thírdhreach sainiúil an chontae mheallacaigh seo. Beidh lucht siamsaíochta as gach cearn den domhan páirteach san fhéile agus beidh níos mó imeachtaí sorcais don teaghlach ar fad i gceist i mbliana ná mar a bhí riamh, go leor acu saor in aisce. Lena chois sin, beidh réimse iontach clár breise ar siúl sna ceantair ina réachtálfar imeachtaí faoin aer, is é sin, Bealach Féich, Leitir Ceanainn, an Ghaeltacht agus Inis Eoghain. Táimid ag obair i gcomhar lenár gcomhpháirtithe lóistín, fóillíochta agus oidhreacht lena chinntiú go mbainfidh sibhse a bheidh i láthair ag an fhéile i mbliana sult aisti agus go bhfaighidh sibh blaiseadh d'oiread imeachtaí agus is féidir. Chuige sin, tá margadh den scoth á thairiscint againn i gcás ticéad do réimse imeachtaí, chun gur féidir libh níos mó den fhéile agus den chontae a fheiceáil ar níos lú airgid. Tá pacáistí iontacha lóistín ar fáil agus, lena chois sin, má fhanann tú i gceann de na hóstáin a bhfuil muid ag comhoibriú leo cuirfear cód lascaine ticéad ar fáil duit nuair a chuirfidh tú do sheomra in áirithe. Sa bhliain seo a ceapadh an chéad ambasadóir cultúrtha d'Éirinn, tá súil againn go gcuirfidh sibhse – an lucht féachana agus ár gcrann taca – Féile Ealaíne an Earagail chun cinn ar bhur mbealach féin, mar is i bhur dtacaíocht leanúnach a chinnteoidh go mairfidh an fhéile samhraidh faoi leith seo. Tagtha ar an saol, tógtha agus déanta i nDún na nGall.

Balor Arts Centre, Ballybofey
www.redmoon.org

Chicago's Redmoon Theater welcomes you to The Picture Book: A Twilight Fairy Tale. This multimedia spectacle for all ages was created in collaboration with local students. Over the course of four weeks Redmoon artists have worked with over ninety students from St. Mary's N.S., Robertson N.S. and Scoil Naisiunta Seiseadh Ui Neill to create original animations using silhouette images inspired by the classic fairytales of Stranorlar poet Frances Browne. Accompanied by a choral performance by the Earagail Singers, these animations will be projected on the façade of the Balor Arts Centre, turning the building into an illuminated screen. This event will be

West Virginian show stoppers, The Fox Hunt play a wild and fresh brand of American roots music that's more akin to the early days of good old rock 'n' roll when Hank was hungry and living out of a suitcase. That they can rock the joint was never in dispute... but when they turn on the a cappella charm, the magic created is jaw-dropping good. When all four sing, the harmonies add a gloriously well-rounded sparkle that many attempt and only the greats pull off.

Quadroponic

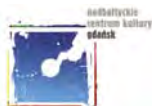

This project has been co-financed by the Polish Ministry of Culture and Cultural Heritage as part of "Fryderyk Chopin - Promesa" programme.

Wed 7th July - 8pm - €15/€10
Regional Cultural Centre, Letterkenny

To mark the 200th anniversary celebrations of the birth of Chopin, Earagail Arts Festival in association with the Polish Embassy presents Quadroponic. In a very distinguished but not obvious manner motifs and phrases taken from Chopin's compositions and traditional Polish folk music are interpreted by the four musicians: two pianists - Emilia Sitarz and Bartek Wasik and two drummers - Magdalena Kordylasinska-Pekala and Miłosz Pekala to render a very unique and individual interpretation only inspired by the voice of the master, Frederick Chopin. Employing 2 grand pianos and a host of percussion including marimba, vibraphone, bongos, African drums, and Tibetan singing bowls, Quadroponic is widely popular and held in high regard wherever they perform not only for the superb quality of their execution and their exquisite level of skill, but also for their boundless creativity in using all the instruments. Each concert is not only a musical feast but also an unforgettable theatrical spectacle.

The Henry Girls & The Fox Hunt

Thurs 8th July - 8pm - €15/€10
Mc Grory's, Culdaff

Almost a year on from last year's show at the Earagail Arts Festival and what a year it's been for The Henry Girls, performing at festivals from LA to Manchester, recording and releasing their third album, Dawn and receiving a nomination for an Irish Film and Television Award... whilst in the process developing and sharing new ideas via the worldwide web with another emerging young talent by the name of The Fox Hunt from half way round the planet in Martinsburg, West Virginia. Inspired by last year's performances by Lorna, Joleen and Karen with the Moroccan band Gawa Fusion and with assistance from the leading importers of true Americana - Brookfield Knights - tonight's concert is the first of 2 very special Earagail Arts Festival commissioned performances that demonstrate the versatility and musicianship of both acts and the creative, collaborative potential that new developments in modern technology offer to artists working and living in very distant corners of the globe. Aside from individual performances by both acts the show will feature combined performances as a result of the two groups trans-atlantic exchange and The Fox Hunt's residency in Inishowen. With The Fox Hunt's modern spin on Appalachian old-time and bluegrass complimenting the Henry Girls traditional and very Donegal driven take on Americana perfectly we hope you'll enjoy the show...it's been a long time coming. A unique guitarist, great vocalist and songwriter, Ian Smith has played with or supported a "who's who" of notable musicians including Paul Brady, Mary Black, Christy Moore, Liam O'Maonlai and Dolores Keane to name a few.

Plus support by Ian Smith

Kevin Doherty – Telegraph

Thurs 8th July - 8pm - €15/€10
Regional Cultural Centre, Letterkenny

Kevin Doherty has been immersed in traditional music his whole life. As a member of live bluegrass legends The Pyros, country legends The Gooseberries and the hugely successful trad group Four Men and a Dog, it's no surprise that his own solo work seeps a unique take on his primary musical grás of folk and Americana music. Having recorded with and been recorded by legendary acts throughout his career like The Band and The Crowmatix, and having written with Paul Brady, Doherty has reached a new comfort zone with his third solo album "Telegraph". This collection of 12 original songs tells his own stories, each an individual one giving a snapshot into some of the various experiences which helped mould both the man and the musician he has become. This storytelling sentiment also highlights the foundation for the concept of Telegraph - the Show, an audio/visual collaboration with some of Ireland's most accomplished film makers, actors, production and sound designers. All of this makes Telegraph – the Show, one not to be missed.

Talvin Singh – Tablatronic

Fri 9th July - 8pm - €15/€10
Regional Cultural Centre, Letterkenny
www.myspace.talvinsinghofficial

Talvin Singh, the celebrated tabla player is unique in his appeal to both fans of world music as he is to those of electronica. Drawing inspiration from the classical Indian arts, Talvin first came to prominence as tabla percussionist in the 1980s London music scene. A winner of 2 of the UK's 2 most prestigious music prizes, 'The South Bank Prize' and 'The Mercury' Singh has also been instrumental in popularising the burgeoning Asian underground sub-culture movement and has collaborated with several musical pioneers in various genre's including Bjork, Blondie, Sioux & the Banshees, Madonna, DJ Spooky, The Master Musicians of Jajouka, Jay Z and Ustad Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan. In 1990 Talvin Singh conceived the Tablatronic, a hybrid electronic/analog instrument allowing him to create a unique and signature musical genre. This concert will prove how he continues to be adept in finding connectivity between seemingly diverse elements, between acoustic and electronic sound, classical and contemporary culture.

R.A.W. / The Pyros

Sat 10th July - €20/€15
The Grill, Letterkenny

Back in the dark days of the early 80s, Donegal's music scene was just about to get a rude awakening. In the back bar of what used to be Murphy's Place, Buncrana the first version of The Pyros was set to play its debut gig, whilst somewhere else across the county from the ashes of Rule The Roost and The Rhythm Method, R.A.W. were rising like a mighty phoenix with a line-up featuring Percy Robinson, Hugo Blake, Malachy Keeney, Damien Doherty, John Lafferty, and their spiritual percussionist and "concussionist" Reverend Kev. The various members of both bands have gone on to success in many projects all over the world. This July however the hard hats will be dusted off, the instruments will be kept just slightly out of tune and the bar will remain open as the sparks fly and the Grill rocks once again to the sound of the full Pyros line-up of Laurence Doherty, Paul Rodden, John Cutcliffe, Kevin Doherty, Ciaran Tourish and Michael Gallanagh and a specially revived R.A.W. now featuring Dietmar Goeppert on keys, Billy Robinson replacing Damien Doherty and Sean Dorrian replacing Lafferty.

Fidil with Neil Martin & Ronan Browne

Sun 11th July - 2pm - FREE
Regional Cultural Centre, Letterkenny

The first ever traditional music album to receive a 5 star review in The Irish Times, Fidil's 2009 album '3' was described as "...a milestone in Irish Music!". Forging their own distinctive sound it is Fidil's diverse and groundbreaking use of fiddles coupled with the depth of lore and tunes of the Donegal fiddle tradition which make Fidil the most unique and avant-garde ensemble in Irish Traditional Music. This showcase concert at the Earagail Arts Festival will see Fidil accompanied by Ronan Browne (Riverdance, Cran, Afro Celt Sound System) and Neil Martin (West Ocean String Quartet). The quintet will make use of the instrumentation on stage to augment Fidil's unique sound and to explore aspects of the Donegal Fiddle tradition, based on pipes and drones, that go back to the 15th and 16th Century. This one-off collaboration of Fidil with a 'natural-synth', will bring Donegal music and the Earagail Arts Festival both back to its roots and to the forefront of contemporary Irish Music today.

One of the most noted young talents to emerge in Cajun or Creole music in the past few years, Cedric Watson is a fiddler, vocalist, accordionist and songwriter of seemingly unlimited potential. Cedric has been making a name for himself reviving old Creole fiddling styles, injecting a healthy dose of his own personality and ingenuity, and bringing them to an ever-broadening audience. Cedric Watson has played with some of the great family names in Creole music, including Dexter Ardoin, Creole Ramblers, Jeffrey Broussard and the Creole Cowboys, and most recently was a featured member of the Pine Leaf Boys. He has a keen interest in connecting Louisiana Creole music to the Creole Nations in other parts of the world. Moving with ease between fiddle and accordion, and adding his strong blues-inflected vocals, Cedric's creative style and obvious joy in playing make him an engaging and exciting performer.

Mr. Neil Hannon requires no introduction, but we'll provide one anyhow: purveyor of the most literate, witty and downright catchy pop tunes in the history of Irish music, ranging from Generation Sex and National Express to Everybody Knows (Except You), The Divine Comedy (as Neil is otherwise known) has delivered one classic album after another, culminating in 2007's Choice Music Prize winner Victory For The Common Muse. Not only that, he penned the theme tunes for two of the greatest comedies of the past twenty years, Father Ted and The IT Crowd. More recently, Neil won acclaim (and another Choice music nomination) as one half of The Duckworth Lewis Method: if you ask nicely, he might just perform their splendid 'alternative' Irish anthem Ireland, Ireland. If you ask really nicely, he might even do My Lovely Horse. He's back with the tenth Divine Comedy elpee, the delicious Bang Goes The Neighbourhood, and treating the Earagail Arts Festival to an all-too-rare solo piano performance - tickets will fly out the door, so book quickly.

The Unthanks

Thurs 15th July - 8pm - €15/€10

Regional Cultural Centre, Letterkenny

Dancing down the leftfield and singing in their own lilting Geordie accents, The Unthanks have been described as the "inheritors, curators and gleeful distorters" of Tyneside's traditions. Discreetly provocative arrangements draw on elements of blues, jazz, music hall, burlesque cabaret, classical and leftfield contemporary music, making their take on folk music peerless, fearless and wholeheartedly brave. Fans as disparate as Robert Wyatt, Kate Rusby, Paul Morley, Tracey Thorn, Nic Jones, Phil Jupitus and Joan As Policewoman have joined the chorus of adulation from the press. In 2008 the band were nominated for Best Group, Best Live Act, Best Album and The Horizon Award at the BBC Folk Awards, winning the Horizon Award.

"They might not end up being the best-selling British all-girl group of all time, but they're well on their way to being the most charismatic and imaginative" Paul Morley, Observer Music Magazine Top 50 Albums of the Year (number 17)

Féile Soilse Thoraí

Dé Sathairn 3ú - Dé Domhnaigh 18ú Iúil / Sat 3rd - Sun 18th July
Cinn éagsúla, Toraigh / Various, Tory Island

Seo an tríú bliain d'Fhéile Soilse Thoraí agus tá sí níos mó agus níos fearr ná mar a bhí riamh! De bhrí gur éirigh chomh maith sin leis an fhéile blianta eile, tá cinneadh déanta ag an fhoireann i dToraigh í a chur ar siúl thar thrí dheireadh seachtaine, seachas ceann amháin. Tabharfaidh sé seo deis níos fearr do dhaoine blaiseadh a fháil den imeacht ar leith seo. Is í an choirm cheoil le Duke Special, Dé Sathairn an 10ú lá, buaicphointe na bliana seo. Beidh Lá na dTeaghlach (san iarnóin an lá céanna) an-spraiúil i mblíana agus i measc na n-imeachtaí a bheidh ar siúl beidh na Fanzini Brothers, spraoi inséidte agus péinteáil aghaidheanna. Beidh an damhsóir sean-nóis mór le rá Ronan Regan i mbun ceardlainne arís i mblíana, Dé Domhnaigh an 11ú lá, agus beidh seisiún bríomhar damhsa ar siúl ina diaidh san óstán. Cuirfidh bunaitheoir an Cabaret Craiceáilte, Rónán Mac Aodha Bhuí ó Raidió na Gaeltachta, i gcomhar le cúpla dioscmharcach, oíche fhiáin de cheol domhanda i láthair Dé Sathairn, an 17ú lá, sa Chlub. Tá an-rath ar rás na gcurach agus, dá bhrí sin, beidh trí réamhbhabhta ann i mblíana Dé Domhnaigh, an 18ú lá. Imeachtaí nua i mblíana: Taispeántú Scannán Éireannach san iarnóin, thar thrí dheireadh seachtaine, agus Rás an Oileáin, a bheidh ar siúl Dé Sathairn, an 17ú lá ... Beidh neart seisiún ceoil traidisiúnta ar siúl thar na trí dheireadh seachtaine, beidh céilí ann gach Éireannach agus déanfar traidisiún sean-nóis an oileáin a cheiliúradh le linn choirm cheoil an oileáin, Dé Domhnaigh, an 18ú lá. Níl ansin ach cuid de na himeachtaí; níos mó eolais le fáil sa chlár agus ar an suíomh gréasáin.

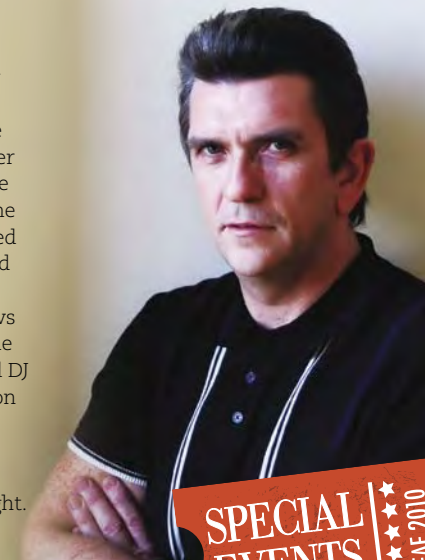

It's the 3rd year for Féile Soilse Thoraí and it is bigger and better than ever! Owing to the success of the previous year's festivals the Tory team have decided to spread it out over three weekends rather than just one. This will give everyone a better chance to experience this unique event. This year's highlight will be Duke Special who will perform on Sat 10th. The fun-packed Family Day featuring the fabulous Fanzini Brothers, inflatable fun, face painting and more, will take place on the afternoon of Saturday 10th. Acclaimed sean-nós dancer Ronan Regan returns to facilitate a sean-nós dance workshop culminating in an energetic dance evening in the hotel on Sunday 11th. Rónán Mac Aodha Bhuí of Raidió na Gaeltachta and founder of 'An Cabaret Craiceáilte' will present a hedonistic evening of 'World Music Extravaganza' with invited DJ's on Sat 17th in the Club. The curragh race has gone from strength to strength and will be held in heats on the 18th due to the resurgence of traditional curragh building. New for this year are: Irish Film Screenings on Saturday afternoons over the three weekends and an Island race, which will take place on Saturday 17th. Finally, last but not least, the festival will also feature numerous traditional music sessions with invited guests throughout the three weekends, céilís each Sunday and a magnificent Island concert highlighting the island's rich sean-nós tradition, on Sunday 18th. These are just a selection of the full programme; please see website.

It is more truthful than anything we have revealed in interviews before because we were relaxed with how it was done and who was doing it". Mike is now an accomplished DJ and broadcaster and currently presents 'The Coalition Independent Music Chart' on the famous New York radio station, East Village Radio. The documentary begins at 8.00pm. Tickets at €15 each include admission to the screening, the talk and the club night.

Banter: Outstanding in their own fields

Sat 17th July - 3pm - €10
Regional Cultural Centre, Letterkenny

Over the last decade, the Irish gig-going community have demonstrated a huge appetite for summer music festivals. The attention paid every year to the Big Two (Oxegen and Electric Picnic), the number of standalone gigs for superstar acts (Lenny Cohen isn't coming back to Ireland for the third summer in a row because he likes the full Irish breakfast) and the rise of a new breed of micro-festivals like Castlepalooza, Indiependence and Glasgowbury is testimony to our fondness for letting our hair down in big fields up and down the country. But will the current recession mean an end to this love affair? Has festival fatigue set in as the same old bands dominate the line-ups? Do punters want something more than just the communal good times in a wet Irish field? Has the rise in popularity of trips to foreign events like Glastonbury and Primavera lessened the appeal of the homegrown bash? And will we still be giving out about the kids at Oxegen and the price of Electric Picnic tickets in five years time? On the panel: Paul McLoone (Today FM, The Undertones), Una Mullally (Sunday Tribune, TG4's Ceol Ar An Imeach) and Declan Forde (POD Concerts and Electric Picnic booker) The discussion will be chaired by Jim Carroll (Irish Times). Questions and comments from the audience are encouraged.

Fibín - An Rón Dall / The Blind Seal

Dé hAoine 16ú Iúil - 8pm - €8/€5
An Clachán, Óstán An Chúirt, Gaoth Dobhair /
An Clachán, Gweedore Court Hotel, Gweedore

An scéal traidisiúnta faoin rón á insint trí na hamharcealaíona, an ceol agus an aisteoireacht. De réir mar a léann Darach Ó Tuairisg ó TG4 an scéal, cuireann Vinnie Kilduff (an buaiteoir gradam Grammy atá tar éis seinm le U2, The Waterboys agus Clannad) fuaimrian allabhrach ar fáil agus déanann an t-ealaíontóir Dara McGee sraith olaphictiúr a théann leis an scéal a tharraingt go gasta. Nuair a shroicheann an scéal a bhuaicphointe uafásach, cuireann McGee na ceithre chanbhás le chéile le pictiúr atá go hiomlán úr a chruthú. Smaoineamh simplí agus é curtha i bhfeidhm ar bhealach iontach.

The traditional tale of the Blind Seal is told through visual arts, music and acting. As TG4's Darach Ó Tuairisg reads the story, Grammy-winning musician Vinnie Kilduff (best known for his work with U2, The Waterboys and Clannad) creates an evocative soundtrack and artist Dara McGee rapidly paints a series of illustrative oil-paintings. When the story reaches its shocking climax, McGee arranges the four canvasses together to reveal a totally new picture. A really simple idea, wonderfully executed. "They've been sporadically touring this brilliant show around arts festivals recently and will continue to do so in 2010. Catch it if you can". - Hot Press.

Balor Arts Centre, Ballybofey

Thurs 8th July - 8.30pm - €12.50/€10

What does it mean to belong to a place? Groundbreaking monologist Mike Daisey has traveled all over the world, from Tajikistan to remote Pacific islands. Now he's in Ireland for the first time, and he's spent weeks interviewing people from all walks of life to tell an honest story that tries to bridge the Irish mythology he knows from America to a foreign homeland he's never known. Somewhere between Billy Connolly and Hunter S. Thompson, Daisey dives into the messy, complicated heart of Ireland with dark humor and irreverent wit, holding a mirror up for us to gaze into if we choose.

An Grianán Theatre, Letterkenny

Molière's classic costume comedy is an uproarious tale of true love between a man and his money. Set in the 17th century, The Miser tells the story of a wealthy but stingy man, Harpington. When old widower Harpington decides to marry off his children against their will, he sets the entire family scheming to steal his fortune. With forbidden romance in the air and the family treasure buried in the backyard, it's a race to see who will come out on top. Can Harpington stay a stride ahead and hang onto his beloved hoard-getting himself a hot young bride to boot? Or will his kids succeed in foiling his selfish plans? Matchmakers, moneylenders, missing Lords and lost family treasure, all add to the resulting spiral of outrageous, comic confusion. One of the funniest love stories ever told...with plenty of contemporary references ...about a man and his money! Cast includes: Paul Boyd, Richard Clements, Michael Condron, Andy Gray, Sarah Lyle, Julie Maxwell, Richard Orr, Katie Tumelty. Contains strong language.

An Grianán Theatre, Letterkenny / Leitir Ceanainn

Bunaíodh Aisteoirí Ghaoth Dobhair i 1934 le drámaí Gaeilge a léiriú don phobal. Ní raibh mórán drámaí ar fáil as Gaeilge ag an am, dá bhrí sin rinne siad drámaí a aistriú ó theangacha eile, le cois cinn úra a scríobh. Bhí "Aintín Shéarlais" ar cheann de na haistriúcháin seo. Is dráma grinn trí mhír é agus deirtear gurb é an scighráma is fearr dar scríobhadh riamh. Is cinnte go mbeidh sibh ag gáire ó thús deireadh agus sibh ag amharc ar an dráma seo, a rinne Tomás Mac Giolla Bhrighde a stiúradh.

Aisteoirí Ghaoth Dobhair was founded in 1934 to perform plays in the Irish language. As there were not many plays in Irish they wrote and translated plays, one of which was "Charlie's Aunt". A farce in three acts it is regarded quite simply as the greatest farce ever written. Directed by Tomás Mac Giolla Bhrighde, it is guaranteed to have you laughing from beginning to end.

Ursula Burke: 'State of Grace' Sam Keogh: 'Babel'
Jim Ricks: "We will say it has nothing to do with us"

Ursula Burke explores how myth-making images of 'Irishness' are created. Her tactile and witty sculptural and photographic artwork subverts the images made emblematic of the 'Irish experience' within nostalgia and heritage. Sam Keogh looks at value in art and objects through a strange alchemy of precious objects conjured from throwaway materials. The Irish Times called it "bravura work", created from all manner of stuff, from glitter and tape to tinfoil and cardboard which "transforms ordinary materials into something else entirely". Jim Ricks is influenced by his background as a prolific graffiti artist and a political activist. A native Californian living in Ireland for the last four years, his art makes links, associations and synchronicities between objects to explore, re-wire and re-create the tangled stories of capitalism.
